CHRIST THE KING SUNDAY

Despair and hope. They travel every road we take – despair at what in our madness we are bringing down on our own heads and hope in him who travels the road with us and for us and who is the only one of us all who is not mad. Hope in the King who approaches every human heart like a city. And it is a very great hope as hopes go and well worth all our singing and dancing because not even death can prevail against this King and not even the end of the world, when it does, will be the end of him and of the mystery and majesty of his love. Blessed be he.

SERVICE OF GATHERING

WELCOME + ANNOUNCEMENTS + PRAYER REQUESTS

* CALL TO WORSHIP

Katy McFadden

One: The head that was once crowned with thorns

All: Is crowned with glory now;

One: For life and health his cross was borne;

All: To him our lives we vow.

One: The highest place that heaven affords

All: Is by his sovereign right.

One: Yet here for us the Lord of Lords

All: Is pleased to grant his light.

* INVOCATION PRAYER (unison)

Lord Jesus, our King, our Judge and Redeemer: From the cross on which we hung you, you pronounced forgiveness upon us, and promised us sinners a place in your paradise. Help us to receive your grace, that we might live lives that are worthy of your great love for us and thereby show that we belong to that kingdom you have opened to all nations, ages, and races. Amen.
