THE FIFTH SUNDAY AFTER PENTECOST

The gospel is bad news, lousy news, offensive news for those who do not know of their need to be made new in Christ. "What you have heard in secret, proclaim from the housetops," Jesus instructed. What message should we shout? The same message that has always gotten Christians into trouble-- that Jesus calls the world to change-- to live by love, to forgive one another, to seek justice, to be agents of reconciliation. If you talk about that kind of life, the world might hate you for it. --Clayton Schmit

PRELUDE "Shout to the Lord" D. Zscec / arr by M. Hayes

*CALL TO WORSHIP Sue Noffsinger

One: Love the Lord your God with all your heart, your mind and your soul.

All: We will love God with an intensity such that no substitute will suffice, the very mention of God's name will be precious as we cleave to our time of communion with The Sacred.

One: Love your neighbor as yourself.

All: We will respect the wisdom of our elders.

We will protect the lives and reputations of those around us.

We will cherish the relationship entrusted to us.

We will not take what is not ours.

We will learn the value of enough.

One: Love the Lord your God.
